The city council is expected to meet in special session at 10 o'clock this morning.

The sewerage bonds are at last ready for the signatures, and will be soon on the market.

Permit to marry has been granted L. C. Pederson and Christina C. Damgaard, both of this city.

Supervisor Avery proved himself a valiant mired yesterday, his string of ducks being large.

Mayor Vaughan has been invited to speak in Burlington next Saturday, and will probably accept.

The colored woman, Mrs. Ruth Austin, who was shot by her husband, has nearly recovered from her injuries.

Services at the Congregational church to-morrow morning and evening. Rev. M. Stone, of Omaha, will preach.

Everything now indicates that the republican demonstration here next Friday will be the largest ever seen in Council Bluffs.

Goodwin's "Confusion" company was at the Odeon yesterday and entertained a fair-sized audience at the Opera house last evening.

The democrats are talking of having a demonstration here next Saturday, the day after the republicans, and try to out-do the latter.

The work of paving North Main street is progressing well, and the paving of Broadway continues to be pushed along pretty lively now.

There was a large crowd at the oyster supper and social given by the Ladies' Harmony Mission at the residence of Mr. Fair, Thursday evening.

Dr. McCreary, the newly-appointed pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, was expected to arrive last night or this morning, so as to occupy the pulpit to-morrow.

Martin's express wagon was given a lively whirl down Main street yesterday by a runaway team, and collided with a buggy near the Crystal mills, smashing both vehicles badly.

All citizens who contemplate contributing toward the entertainment of the commercial travelers' next week, should call or send word to the mayor, or be ready to respond when called on by his private secretary, Mr. Smith.

All ladies who are interested in the success of the republican party are requested to meet at the rooms under the board of trade rooms, in Saugart's block, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, to make arrangements for the parade on October 31.

Farmers and stockmen are especially interested in the coming sale of Short-horns by L. C. Baldwin &amp; Son, which takes place at the fair grounds here Wednesday, October 29. The particulars are given in a card, in another column.

"The living voice of those the world call dead, shall be the guide to clearer day." Spiritual circle to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon and evening at 2 and 7:30 o'clock in Spiritual hall, entrance on Main and Pearl streets, two doors south of postoffice.

Col. Daily's colt indulged in a playful runaway at the driving park yesterday, and after spinning around the track at a lively gait went to the stable and spun around among the buckets, brushes and blankets, but luckily did not a penny's damage.

There are only a few thousand dollars of the paving bonds to be sold, if those who are now arranging to invest in them complete their purchases. Among the buyers are several of the citizens who, having a few thousand dollars, see no better chance to invest.

Frank Witherell had a red-hot time lighting up a store with gas at Cook &amp; Lanterwasser's store on Broadway yesterday. There was a slight explosion, and the stove being filled with excellent the flames poured out scorching his face quite badly and burning of his whiskers.

W. J. Johnson, of St. Joseph, the bicyclist, who is to have a race with Wm. Patterson in Omaha to-morrow, has been stopping at the Pacific house here for several days, and training at the driving park. His backers, Ellis and Henderson, of Kansas City, arrived here yesterday. The race is said to be for $1,000 a side.

A respectably dressed woman, of middle age, was picked up by the police on Main street Thursday night, she being suspected of having stolen a pair of shoes. She was complained of by a fourteen-year-old boy, who was attending her, at which the woman got so angry, she refused to settle for it. She tried to smother the tender aged boy, but he, finding her handkerchief as security.

After being sobered up at the jail she was released without any trial.

J. E. Brooks, the ex-policeman, is recovering slowly from his long and severe illness. It has been a hard pull for him, he having little financial resources, on which to draw to meet the additional expenses of such an illness. He has many friends here, however, and they should rally about him in his time of trouble, and give him some substantial expression of their esteem.

Catharine Hopkins got out a search warrant yesterday for some wood which she claimed was stolen from her by John Bartley, a neighbor. It is claimed that her son-in-law sold the wood and Bartley and Mrs. Hopkins having some trouble sent her son-in-law, to object to the sale. The matter is to be sifted in Justice Vaughan's court to-day.

Morgan O'Brien is still at his home and under medical treatment, and his condition is such that he requires constant watching. He thinks that some vigilance committee is after him, and he is liable to escape again or commit some violence. Unless there is a change in his condition within a few days it will be necessary to take him to the asylum.

The case of Boomer, charged with being a pickpocket, is to come up for a hearing in Vaughan's court this afternoon. Boomer was a witness in the other case of pickpocketing, and seemed so very anxious to get the fellow clear, that suspicion was aroused that he was one of the gang who tried to work the crowd during the democratic administration.

A serious accident occurred to Mr. John Hawthorne yesterday. He was at Bebbington's lumber yard with a team and wagon, and in starting out of the yard, turned a little too short and was thrown out, falling on the ground with much force, and one wheel passing over him. He was at once taken to his residence, and an examination showed his collar bone to be broken, and one shoulder dislocated.

The attention called to the court house by an article in yesterday's BEE caused a number of citizens to personally inspect the building yesterday. They were surprised to find how greatly the crumbling, cracking and settling had changed for the worse since public attention was called out before. It may not take a tumble, but the people ought to take a tumble to themselves and put up a new building. Every citizen should look at it.

Prof. Herman Schroder, one of the best known musicians in Council Bluffs, died yesterday morning about 2 o'clock, after an illness of about a week, malarial fever being the cause. He resided here about thirteen years, and has no family or relatives here. He has a sister living in Germany, his native place. He was aged about 42 years, and had many acquaintances in Omaha as well as in this city. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Morgan's undertaking rooms. The Omaha friends are especially invited to attend.

Miss Neely Stevens is arranging to give a piano concert at Boyd's opera house in Omaha, Thursday evening, October 30. She will be assisted by Miss Lizzie Calderwood, Mr. Martin Cahn and a male quartet. The music-lovers of Omaha will have a treat indeed. Miss Stevens has already won the highest praise as a pianist, and it is conceded that she already excels Esplanade, and the prediction is made by musical critics that it will not be long before the public will concede her still greater plaudits, and her name will become linked with fame.

Orders by telephone for flour, feed, wood, coal and hay will be promptly filled by Cook &amp; Cooper, 700 Broadway.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following real estate transfers were filed at the county clerk's office October 24, and reported for THE BEE by Ames real estate agency:

Nathan M. Pusey and wife to Peter Witt, $3,000 and $1,247.43, $4,247.43.

Susanah McLean and husband to Jas. H. W. L. $1,250.00, $25,70.41, $26,954.41.

S. S. Pollock and wife to Samuel Best, $1,000.00, $25,70.40, $4,000.00.

It did not look much as if money was scarce by the number of people who were purchasing goods of H. E. Seaman, as one of THE BEE force called on him yesterday morning. They were probably attracted there by the extreme low prices at which he is offering goods to close out his business.

Every carriage in the city is being engaged for the commercial men, who are to gather here next week, and citizens having carriages are also tendering the same to the use of the visitors, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Closing Out.
To close the business I offer my stock of miscellaneous goods, picture, fancy goods, notions, fire screens, cases, willow and cane high chairs and children's rockers, at prices never known before in the west. H. E. Seaman, paper, books and stationery, 504 Broadway, Council Bluffs.
